SECTION 3 - AT&T COMMERCIAL LONG DISTANCE SERVICE

3.1 DESCRIPTION

3.1.1 General

AT&T Commercial Long Distance Service permits Customer dialed outward calling from stations within the State of New York. Customers who subscribe to AT&T's intrastate Commercial Long Distance Service are automatically subscribers to AT&T's interstate Commercial Long Distance Service as outlined in AT&T's Business Service Guide.

AT&T Commercial Long Distance Service is a switched network service which provides for Dial Station and Customer Dialed/Operator Dialed Calling Card Station calls originated on a line for which the subscriber pays a rate based on the classification of the subscriber's service as business or commercial service in the applicable local exchange service tariff for switched services. The rates for AT&T Commercial Long Distance Service, other than Dial Station rates, are specified in the Message Telecommunications Service tariff, AT&T Tariff P.S.C. No. 23.

AT&T Commercial Long Distance Service rates do not apply to:

1. Conference Service Calls
2. Calling Card, Person and other Operator Handled calls
3. Calls to 700, 800 or 900 Special Service Codes
4. Mobile or Cellular Calls
5. Calls to Directory Assistance
